The Richard Langhorn Trust

is dedicated to providing sporting opportunities for disabled and disadvantaged children.

Since its creation, the Trust has given financial help and encouraged hundreds of disabled and disadvantaged children across the world to participate in and enjoy a variety of sport.

From coaching rugby and providing a home for poverty stricken children in Calcutta, to supporting the development of junior wheelchair basketball; The Richard Langhorn Trust has brought smiles to many children's faces.

The Richard Langhorn Trust was founded in 1994 in memory of Harlequins player Richard Langhorn who tragically died that year having served his club for over ten years as well as being selected for England A. Helping to raise funds are Trustee Peter Winterbottom and Patrons Jason Leonard, Lawrence Dallaglio and Will Carling.

With your help
we can continue to bring happiness to many children across the world.
